Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 18, 2019, DXC Technology announced the election of David L. Herzog to chair its board of directors.

Herzog's appointment will become effective on January 1, 2020. Consistent with the process announced in September, Herzog succeeds Mike Lawrie, who had announced his retirement as DXC's president and CEO in September, along with his intent to step down as DXC's board chair at the end of this year. Lawrie was succeeded as DXC's president and chief executive officer by Mike Salvino.

Herzog has served on DXC's board of directors since the company's formation in 2017 and has been chair of the board's audit committee. His term as board chair will run until the board completes its search for a permanent board chair.

"I have enjoyed working with David since I joined the DXC board earlier this year," Salvino said. "Together, we will continue to focus on our key priorities: People, Customers and Operational Execution."

Herzog served as the chief financial officer and executive vice president of American International Group (AIG) until 2016. His previous roles at AIG included senior vice president and comptroller, chief financial officer for worldwide life insurance operations, and vice president, Life Insurance. In addition, Herzog served in other senior officer positions for AIG and its subsidiaries, including as the chief financial officer and chief operating officer of American General Life following its acquisition by AIG.

"It is an honor to be asked to chair the DXC board at a time when the company has a clear strategy and a strong foundation for growth," Herzog said. "I am excited to work with Mike Salvino to move the company forward."

Prior to AIG, Herzog served in various executive positions at GenAmerica Corporation and Family Guardian Life, a Citicorp company, and at a large accounting firm that is now part of PwC. Herzog holds the designations of Certified Public Accountant and Fellow, Life Management Institute. He is also a member of the board of directors of MetLife Inc. and Ambac Financial Group, Inc.
